

FPPA Policy Regarding Public Records

FPPA offers access to the public regarding information and public records in its possession primarily through its website. Most frequently requested information can be obtained directly from the website free of charge, including many documents and publications. Public records that are not available on the website can be obtained by contacting FPPA.

The following fees apply to public records request:

| | |
|--|----------------------------------|
| Copies | $0.25 per page |
| Research and Retrieval of documents fee (no charge for 1st hour) | $30.00 per hour |
| Records or information requiring the manipulation of data | actual cost of answering request |

FPPA may require a deposit to be made against costs before providing information. FPPA will provide an estimate of costs upon request. Actual costs may be higher or lower than the estimate provided.

Records requests may be directed to:
